

LKRA is committed to keeping residents informed throughout the year using a variety of communication tools, including the LKRA website and Facebook page, eBlasts and the Annual Newsletter. A task force is now underway to review our communication strategies and effectiveness. The group will table their recommendations prior to this year's AGM.